DISSEMINATION NUMBERED [REDACTED]

The Falange Socialista Boliviana (FSB) has set 10 January as the new date for its projected revolution against the present Bolivian government. The coup, originally planned for December 1952,<sup>1</sup> was postponed because of Bolivia's closing of the Peru-Bolivia border during the middle of December, which prevented the FSB from receiving 50 percent of the arms which it expected to smuggle into Bolivia from Peru.

25X1

1. [redacted] reported that the FSB planned a coup about mid-December if it could acquire sufficient amounts of arms and money.
